

A train-the-trainer program for sustainable research data management training

Two-day workshop for 10-12 participants

Target group:

- Librarians
- Researchers
- PhDs
- Project coordinators
- Lecturers

Comprehensive concept with 22 learning units

Quality control via two pilot phases

Collection of feedback directly after the workshop and about 4 months later by e-mail

Almost 100 trainers have been successfully qualified

Content-related component

- Digital research data
- Research data policies
- Data management plan
- Order and structure
- Documentation and metadata
- Storage and backup
- Long-term archiving
- Access security
- Publication of research data
- Re-use of research data
- Legal aspects
- Institutional infrastructure

Social component

- Welcome and getting to know
- Closing of the first day
- Welcome on the second day
- Feedback and farewell

Didactic component

- Didactic approach
- Practical exercise
- Concept development
- Didactic methods

Organizational component

- Orientation
- Event framework

90% of the participants rate
the improvement of RDM training abilities
as (very) good.

